Generative Anthropology Summer Conference 2010
The Anthropology of Modernity: The Sacred, Science, and Aesthetics
Westminster College (Salt Lake City)/Brigham Young University (Provo)
24-26 June 2010

Registration Form

Name

____________________________________________________________________________________

Institutional Affiliation

____________________________________________________________________________________

Mailing Address

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

Email

____________________________________________________________________________________

Conference Fees

Regular: $50

____________________________________________________________________________________

Student: $25

____________________________________________________________________________________

Friday Evening Dinner at the Ruby River Steak House $30 (vegetarian available)

____________________________________________________________________________________

(Please add $30 for yourself and for each person you are bringing)

Saturday Evening Banquet/Roundtable at Westminster College $30

____________________________________________________________________________________

(Please add $30 for yourself and for each person you are bringing)

*Would anyone from your party prefer a vegetarian option? Yes/No (If so, how many? _____)

*Would you be interested in joining a free tour of Temple Square and downtown Salt Lake City on Sat. afternoon? Yes/No (circle one)

Total

____________________________________________________________________________________

You may register and pay at the conference. Or, to preregister: Fill out this form and send a check or money order (sorry no credit cards) for the appropriate amount, made payable to "Westminster College," to the following address:

Dr. Peter Goldman
Department of English
Westminster College
1840 South 1300 East
Salt Lake City, Utah 84105